

Perhaps a bit more difficult this time!

First.

Name the countries on sheet 1. There is space on the sheet to write the answers.

Second.

We can see which is the biggest by size, but has it got the biggest population? If not, which of these 9 countries has?

Third.

On sheet 2. I think you will know what country it is. Can you name the 7 areas?

1.....

2.....

3.....

4.....

5.....

6.....

7.....

One of these is not a State. Do you know which one is it? I did not know this before now!

.....

Forth.

One animal in area 7 has a reputation for being very fierce. What is it?
